

Single Sign-On (SSO) allows users to access their Simplicity VoIP account seamlessly across multiple devices via existing account access including Google and Office365.

Single Sign-On (SSO) allows the linking of user email accounts for a simpler sign-on experience. Benefits include:

- Limited number of credentials reduces opportunity for a password to be captured
- Proactive security solutions ensure data stays safe, secure, and confidential
- Reduces tendency for reuse of similar passwords promoting security
- Launch phone account with the click of a single button
- Access to Simplicity account via Google and Office365

Cost: No additional cost